A successful member networking event highlighting the importance of the Asian festival of Vaisakhi took place at the Mirage Banqueting & Hospitality Suites.

Each April, millions of South Asians world-wide celebrate Vaisakhi Day – also spelled Baisakhi – which marks both the New Year and the anniversary of one of Sikhism's major events, the establishment of Khalsa in 1699 with the Amrit ceremony.

Vaisakhi is also a long established harvest festival in the Punjab.

The event, co-sponsored by Mirage and Karra Design & Print, attracted an audience of almost 150 delegates with informative presentations given by key representatives from IAB Patron Grant Thornton, educational charity GREAT, and the Birmingham Council of Sikh Gurdwaras.

Entertainment was performed by King G Mall's Dhol Bhangra Blasters, which was then followed by hospitality provided by IAB member City Catering Services Ltd.
